

Stewardship Activities

Instruction:

In the space below, please provide information about 'stewardship activities' in the location where you work and help examine the relationship between these activities and small-scale fishing people.

This exercise is conducted as part of the Too Big To Ignore project. The completed form, as well as any questions and comments should be sent as an attachment to toobigtoignore@mun.ca.

General information

Name of contributor:

Email:

Affiliation:

Country:

Name of SSF study area:

Location:

Country:

1. What types of stewardship activities take place in the area?

2. Who initiated these activities? (e.g. communities, government, NGOs etc.)?

3. What roles do small-scale fishing communities have in these stewardship activities?

4. What impacts (positive/negative) do these stewardship activities have on small-scale fisheries?

5. How successful are these stewardship activities?

6. Problems and challenges facing the implementation of these activities?